Lapus: NCAE a huge success

By Jerry E. Sapietada

EDUCATION SECRETARY ROLLA A. LAPUS has declared a "huge success" last Tuesday's holding of the National Cancer Awareness Week in NCAE.

"Reports from all regions nationwide showed huge numbers despite rather threat of a typhoon by military officials," Lapus said yesterday, citing reports reaching the Department of Education from all over in Pangasinan.

Even so-called "No Lapus" and "No Lapus" rallies were held in various schools, Lapus said yesterday.

Last week, high school students belonging to the National League of Filipino Students and Association threatened to boycott the rally.

Their threats, however, turned out to be a "hoax," and they pulled out.

'Black Duke' visits Manila

By Cynthia D. Balana

A FAMILIAR WITH THE NIGHT DECKS of both houses is the British Fleet in Manila this week in various joint military training exercises with the Philippine Navy, focusing on maritime security.

RMS Montserrat, a Type 23 Duke class frigate with nearly 200 officers and crew, is on a joint deployment of about one year as part of a series of bilateral strategic partnership. It is also scheduled to visit Australia, New Zealand, the United States, Japan, and Singapore.

Spending after his arrival in Manila, Commanding Officer Tilo Prosser, the ship captain and commander of the Royal Navy and RMS Montserrat is one of the largest Royal Navy ships to visit Manila in many years.

Prosser said the visit "underscores the continuing importance of the Philippines-British military and strategic partnership."

In fact, "I look forward to meeting the new secretary of defense and other senior members of the Philippine Armed Forces."

Prosser said he hoped RMS Montserrat, affectionately called the Black Duke, would also take some treasure with the Philippines Navy's history of the Philippines.

Recommending RMS Montserrat's tour to British Ambassador Peter Stodolpham who said the visit gave an opportunity to reinforce the close strategic interests of the Philippines and the United Kingdom, and to review existing which has been provided by the UK to the Philippine Navy.

The ship's program included meetings with senior defense and government officials by Prosser of the Royal Navy as well as a call on Manila Mayor Alfredo Lim.

DOTC ready to defend $329-M national broadband network project

By Rex T. Chikman

THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION and Communications (DOTC) said it was ready to defend the nation's broadband network (NBN) project.

DOTC spokesman for filing of any charges as we believe that the NBN matter should be resolved in a proper forum, which is the courts, and not through PM (press releases) and other promotional means," DOTC spokesman Secretary Lucio R. Mendoza said.

He said the government is not in a position to defend the NBN project because it is a private project. He said the government is not in a position to defend the NBN project because it is a private project.

The $329-million NBN project was by 27th Corp. of China and one of the largest infrastructure projects of the $1.8-billion loan agreement between the Philippines and China.

Signed and sealed
The Philippine government and the Chinese government signed the deal for the NBN project on Sunday at the offices of the Chinese Consul in Manila.

The NBN is intended to establish a national network of broadband, which will be used by the government and private sector government agencies or offices. DOTC said the government will spend P2.5 billion on the NBN project, set to be undertaken by 27th Corp. from among a lower three private interest in the loan compared with a private interest in government-owned or to be used in commercial activities.

On Tuesday, Padilla lodged a complaint in the Office of the Ombudsman against Mendoza, Assistant Secretary Lorenza Ponce and other officials, but officials of the Chinese state-owned company 27th Corp. and several others.

company 27th Corp. and several others.

'Grossly disadvantageous'

Padilla said it is his charge that since position officials ruled the bid-gate and the Government Procurement Board, that when they entered into a "grossly disadvantageous" deal between the Philippines and 27th Corp.

"The NBN matter is now considered as a public issue, which means that the case is now in the hands of the courts," he said.

Abalos may have played key role in NBN deal

Example 1
Padilla said a volume by Jeta Borja in Manila Philippines has an account of the NBN deal while he played a key role in the deal.

"If this matter is investigated by the House, I thought that it would be a required reading of the members of the House," Padilla said.

the "secret process" to handle the NBN deal. He said he did not play a key role in the deal.

Ready to face probe
Northwestern, Abalos said he would face whatever investigation Padilla or the House of Representatives would initiate.

On April 21, 2005, Abalos was named by the House of Representatives as a member of the NBN project. He said he did not play a key role in the deal.

"I can't immediately say if I'm innocent or not because we don't even know if there is an investigation or not," he said.

He said he did not play a key role in the deal. He said he did not play a key role in the deal.

Two other companies—American Holdings Inc. (AHI) and US-based American—came up with proposals of $240 million and $120 million, respectively, to undertake the NBN project.

Padilla said the Philippine state-owned 27th Corp. was the only bidder for the NBN project. He said he did not play a key role in the deal.

E-Procurement Law violated?

Padilla said the E-Procurement Law was violated because the award was given to 27th Corp. without a competitive bidding process.

"There were no competitors, in fact, there was only one bidder," he said.

Padilla said the representative of AHI, which proposed to undertake the NBN through the DOTC, was asked to withdraw its submitted proposal to the DOTC.

Unofficial trips

Padilla said that while he was in the Philippines, he did not play a key role in the deal. He said he did not play a key role in the deal.

"According to records, 27th Corp. paid for the hotel accommodations of Abalos in Manila, which was for the NBN project," he said.

"On several occasions during this time, Chairman Abalos was also seen playing golf with officials of 27th Corp. in the Philippines," he said.

He said Padilla made the claim that he was a close friend of Abalos.

Garduce conquers another mountain

By Arnold Puga

THE COUNTRY'S MOST accomplished mountaineer has added another peak to his climbing rap.

Jose Garduce, the 36-year-old IT professional from Balagtas, Bulacan, conquered Mt. Elbrus on Monday, September 12.

That, of course, is not the first time he has climbed the mountain. He has been to it several times before, but this time he was climbing it for the first time.

He said the weather was very bad. He left his tent at 10:00 p.m. and went to the summit at 1:00 a.m. He said the weather was very bad. He left his tent at 10:00 p.m. and went to the summit at 1:00 a.m.

Patafa axes nat'l mentor Posadas

By John Nemes

JOJO POSADAS, WHO BECAME a national coach as mentor of stock legend Edna Maria, was sacked from the Philippine national basketball team.

Posadas, who has been the mentor of the coach who has become the husband of the now estranged Maria, the Manila coach was sacked because Posadas failed to win a national title in preparing the country's team for the Southeast Asian Games in Thailand last December.

"It pains me to see Jojo go," said Posadas' mentor, Co-ling Gal. "He helped the country win several gold medals through his love and the other athletes he mentored."

"He used to ask me of the 30 athletes and coaches who signed the manifesto during a meeting earlier in the day to re-consider their choice to sack Posadas."

Posadas was sacked two weeks ago after a group of athletes and coaches led by coach Jose Luis Sison (JLS) filed a motion to sack Posadas.

Posadas, Manila's former coach, was sacked from the national team last December. He was replaced by JLS.

Posadas, who is working a coaching job in his alma mater, the University of the Philippines, said he was disappointed to be sacked from the national team.

Posadas stated Maria was his wife in August 11 of the 1990s. He was the coach of the national team.

Peso slips further to 46.83 to a dollar

Analysts see currency breaching 47 level soon

By Boris C. Dumala

THE PESO YESTERDAY FALTERED AGAINST THE DOLLAR, nearly touching the 47:51 barrier, as regional currencies were again battered by global investors' growing concern over a US economic slowdown.

The local currency yesterday opened at 46.99 and hit an intraday low of 46.81 before closing at 46.83 against the dollar at the Philippine Stock Exchange. It shed 12 centesimos from Friday's closing of 46.95.

A double whammy caused by reports that consumer confidence in the US had fallen to its lowest level this year and another report showing that some US housing supply had reached its highest in more than 15 years is only again spooked investors.

Stocks close 1.3% lower

INDEX PRICES CLOSED 1.3 PERCENT lower yesterday as investors sold their way out of a shaky stock market overnight, and subsequent falls in Asian markets, analysts said.

They said this came after the US market reacted to further gloomy economic data, showing consumer confidence in August of its lowest since a year.

The release of the index to the PSE and the PSE Composite Index yesterday on Aug. 7, which appeared to show hopes for a new upturn in the key index, also pushed investors to the exit.

The composite index closed down 12.34 points at 10,111.33, off the day's low of 10,111.33. The broader all-share index ended down 30.42 points at 10,111.33.

Out of 156 stocks traded, 135 fell and only 12 advanced, while 26 traded unchanged. Volume amounted to 3.1 billion shares, worth P2.8 billion.

"Lingering negative concerns clearly affected PSE investor confidence and the negative sentiment today," said Jose Veloso of SEI Capital Securities.

The negative data disappointed investors who were hoping that the financial sector's recovery after central banks were quick to respond to the global banking system, and living debt, said president of J. Robinson and Co. AFP

Environment, infra projects get $58-M fund

By Michelle S. Rana

THE PHILIPPINES IS SET TO RECEIVE $58 million in financial assistance from the World Bank and another $1 million from the Japanese government to help fund its environment and infrastructure-related projects.

The World Bank is providing a $58 million loan to fund the National Program Support for Environment and Natural Resources Management.

The loan will provide budgetary support for the Department of Environment and Natural Resources to carry out its mandate to manage and protect the country's natural resources and the environment.

"What needs to be done is to institute reforms in the DENR but it is efficiency and effectively project, programs, and manage the coastal, soil, water, natural and biodiversity resources of the Philippines. This project comes at a very opportune time for the DENR," said newly appointed Environment Secretary Jose Almonte.

The other $1 million from the World Bank will come in the form of a grant and will be used to fund programs related to the management of watershed and wetlands and implementation of the river basin plan along local government units, the national government and people's organizations.

The $1 million grant from the Japan Policy and Strategy Development Program will be used to fund a regional study for the Central Luzon North-South Expressway project, which will be implemented by the Department of Public Works and Highways.

The infrastructure project is aimed at easing traffic along Apurdu Highway and General Road.

UCPB helps coco farmers make use of waste materials

By Amy S. Ramos

THE FOUNDATION OF THE UNITED Coconut Farmers' Fund has introduced a technology to help small coconut farmers make use of waste indigenous tree stumps.

The United Coconut Farming Technical Support Center's assistance has been to help separate coconut husks, pebbles and fresh twigs from materials abundant in their farms.

These include rice husks, leaves, coconut husks and coconut manure, which are usually just thrown away.

According to UCPB, the technology is known for its cost-effectiveness and sustainability with sustainable development practices.

The technology is now being tested in Quezon, Oriental Mindoro, Marikina, Cavite, Laguna, Camarines Sur, Cagayan, Ilocos and Benguet.

Five coconut farmers' cooperatives in Compostela Valley, Davao City, Ilocos del Norte and Cebu have also started testing under the UCPB-Coconut Industry Investment Fund Foundation on the bio-technology.

"Our goal is to introduce the coconut farmers to larger and more cost-efficient farming techniques so they can become more productive," UCPB CEO president Edgardo Anitad said in a statement.

The program is expected to increase the availability of cheap raw materials to coconut processors, particularly farmers and processors, especially since the prices of fresh fuel-based chemical fertilizers have been boosted.

According to the Philippine Coconut Authority, it costs about P5,000 to bring one hectare of land planted to coconuts.

Shipping project gets perks

By Ramon M. Domingo

THE BOARD OF INVESTMENTS has granted tax perks and others in connection to publicly listed (open) Shipping Corp.'s P400-million cargo vessel project.

BOI data show that the all-P400-million project will require a P2,700-million cargo vessel, which would provide inter-island cargo liner services to local companies.

The vessel will give the Manila-based Shipping Corporation a route to the Philippines, South Korea, Japan and other countries.

The project cost will cover pre-operating expenses, improvement and construction of the vessel, capital equipment, as well as working capital.

In a disclosure to the Philippine Stock Exchange filed last June, Lorenzo Shipping said it was buying a 11-year-old vessel from Black Star Shipping of Malta for $8.5 million.

Listed Lorenzo Shipping plans cargo service

According to the BOI, the project will include fiscal and non-fiscal incentives, like tax holidays, due to the Investment Promotion Board's provisions for the domestic shipping sector.

Lorenzo Shipping is engaged solely in domestic inter-island cargo liner services and will maintain a fleet of seven vessels as it begins its initial run.

The company's vessels, deployed in the key ports of Visayas and Mindanao, have a capacity ranging from 200 twenty-foot equivalent units to 400 TEUs.

Also, BOI has approved the granting of incentives to Filinvest Land Inc.'s P400-million, low-cost mass housing project in Calamba, Laguna.

The development, called Adala Road, will have 404 units in an 11.5-hectare parcel of land in Barangay Indayayon, Calamba.

This is Filinvest's second low-cost, mass housing project, following a P47-million project in Santa Rosa, Laguna.

Adala Road started commercial operation last July and would employ 200 workers during construction.

Project Adala and 60 percent of sales earned, Filinvest Land is one of the country's leading full-range real-estate property developers, engaged in the development and sale of residential property, primarily housing units and subdivisions.

The company lists the low-income to high end of residential market with its localized housing units, where low income or ultra-low housing units, middle income housing units, upper end residential subdivisions and low housing units such as townhouses.

Vulcan, ATN sign mining deal

PUBLICLY LISTED VULCAN INDUSTRIAL AND Mining Corp. said it had signed on Tuesday a memorandum of agreement with ATN Holdings Inc. to develop mineral resources in Isabela.

In a disclosure to the Philippine Stock Exchange, Vulcan IVP and general manager PHILIP V. Gaudin said the MOA would be "for the prospecting and development of mineral resources in Isabela."

Under the MOA, ATN would examine and explore for minerals within Vulcan's mining claims in Isabela.

After the exploration work and mineral rights study, ATN and Vulcan would determine the details of the subsequent development work.

ATN and Vulcan are expected to decide through their mutual judgment and within the terms and conditions of the MOA.

This would include the "operation of a joint venture company that will be in charge of the acquisition and operation of facilities for the mining, recovery, beneficiation and sale of minerals and such other derivative products as may be mined from the Isabela resources."

Vulcan earlier said it planned to raise as much as P600 million by selling new shares to a third party to finance the firm's investments and debt repayment program.

Plans would be raised through a 1.1 sq sq private placement to Anglo Philippine Holdings Corp., a holding firm with interests in coal mines, infrastructure and energy projects.

Vulcan said the proceeds of the private placement would be used over a five-year period.

It added that the 600 million in new shares would be issued for the subscription at P1 each, with 25 percent immediately due for payment by the issuer, while the balance might be "valued" by the firm's board of directors at an unspecified date.

DELL, INC. PLANS TO SEND 100 Filipino employees abroad to help meet its needs in the United States, Europe and elsewhere.

"We are excited to have the Philippines as a key location for our global network," said Michael J. Gorman, CEO of Dell International Services Philippines Inc.

"This is a key location for our global network," said Michael J. Gorman, CEO of Dell International Services Philippines Inc.

people to help our tech solutions," Gorman said.

Asked whether there were such plans, Gorman said there were no plans for the Philippines to be a destination.

He said this was partly a result of the growth that Dell's Philippine unit enjoys, having earned.

Its first call center was set up as low to customer satisfaction, under Dell's worldwide internal recognition system.

Dell has 20 call centers spread across the globe, employing more than 10,000 employees.

"As for local expansion, we need to have things to do to help our tech solutions," Gorman said.

He said the company's decision was to add new service of things and go up the technical ladder, rather than grow its market.

"We already have 1,200 people in Pinaric and 500 in Iloilo," Gorman said. "The plan was to grow to 2,000 people by next year, but we may do that soon."

Generali collected P1.3B in premiums in H1

By Michelle V. Rana

INSURANCE FIRM GENERALI PHILIPPINES collected P1.3 billion worth of premiums in the first half, putting it on track to meeting its goal of increasing sales this year by 30 percent.

For Patricia Generali chief underwriting officer, said in a briefing yesterday that the company plans to generate P1.7 billion in premiums income this year, up from last year's P1.2 billion, and that the goal looked "achievable."

Generali added that Generali was fully ready to meet its goal of increasing sales this year by 30 percent, and that the goal looked "achievable."

Generali said it was the first time in its history that it had achieved this goal.
